

Research Project Grading Rubric

Student Name: _____

Stock Company: _____

Grading Components	Excellent/Exceeds Expectations	Satisfactory/Needs Minimal Improvement	Unsatisfactory/Needs Improvement	Teacher Feedback
A graph that shows the historical stock prices of their company from start to current day	Graph is included and labeled with all information	Graph is included, but is missing some information	Graph is not included
A brief summary of their company's services and/or goods	Summary is detailed and includes overview of goods and/or services	Summary is detailed and includes overview of goods and/or services, only lacking some minor details	Summary is included, but lacks major details and is missing major parts of the company's history
Identify at least three time periods when the company's stock increased sharply and three time periods when the company's stock decreased sharply	Three periods of stock price increases and decreases are identified and summarized	Three periods of stock price increases and decreases are identified, but lacking a summary	Missing information and did not identify three periods of stock price increases and decreases for their company
Reflect on potential reasons for the changes in stock based on historical background knowledge and further research	Critical thought and analysis are given, along with supporting historical data, for changes in stock prices	Some reflection and analysis are given, along with supporting historical data, for changes in stock prices	Little to no reflection or analysis is given for changes in stock prices
Why might it be a challenge to forecast the company's next 20 or 30 years of prices?	Critical thought and analysis are given, along with supporting historical data, for forecasting the future prices	Some reflection and analysis are given, along with supporting historical data, for forecasting the future prices	Little to no reflection or analysis is given for forecasting the future prices
Totals:

Comments:

Grade: _____