

Spider Diagram

Name _____

Directions: Use the inner circle to place the name of a dominant employer in your city. In the center of the satellite clusters, place the main resources used in the production of the good the employer produces. Finally, show how interrelated the resources are to the product. Not all circles have to be completed and you can add more. This diagram shows how resources are derived from the product that the firm produces.

